Sgt. Matt Gerst spoke on behalf of Chief Fred Dyroff and gave the May report

Sgt Gerst briefly discussed training the officers attended as well as training he and Chief Dyroff attended.

Sgt. Gerst said Officers Garon Fenstermaker and George Geise received the Geisinger Emergency Medical Services Outstanding Provider of the Year award for Heroism, for their actions when they removed two people from a burning apartment building on May 28, 2021.

Vice-Chairman Whelan briefly discussed the officers patrolling Red Oak Circle as residents are concerned about speeding issues on their road.

Treasurer Ken Houck was not available

Engineer Drew Barton discussed

Drew said they had their annual employee training for the MS4 program on Friday, which the DSI team attended. He said they also discussed inspections that are required.

Drew said they discussed the Edgewood Designs and Easements with the residents and told them they would be getting an agreement in the mail. He and Solicitor DeWald will work on completing these letters.

Resident Julie Fought, expressed concerns about the storm water pipe replacement project affecting her property near Edgewood Drive. Drew said only the area relative to the pipe would be affected.

Drew said he still hasn't heard back from PennDOT concerning the Bloom Road construction.

Solicitor Jon DeWald had no report

Zoning Officers Dean VonBlohn

Dean said he would like the board to approve Solicitor DeWald moving forward with the Amended Ordinance concerning Dumpster Permits, adding requirements for dumpsters setting on streets. He said they also revamped the application. The supervisors approved moving forward. Solicitor Jon said this will be advertised and ready for the supervisors to approve at the next meeting.

Dean asked the board to approve moving forward with the Comprehensive Plan that he, Solicitor Jon DeWald and Engineer Drew Barton have been updating, with costs not to exceed $51,150. Supervisor Whelan motioned to authorize Dean to proceed, in cooperation with Livic Engineering and Solicitor DeWald, to develop the Comprehensive Plan for the community, not to exceed $51,150. Supervisor Lynn seconded. Motion passed.

Dean said they met with the PennDOT and the owner of the property at 6 Kaseville Road concerning a blocked pipe causing water runoff. The owner contacted Roto Rooter to clean out and scope the pipe. It was discovered that the pipe partially collapsed during construction causing a large rock to be trapped, collecting debris, which blocked the pipe. Dean said he was contacted by PennDOT and said there is controversy of who is responsible for the maintenance of the 180 ft. pipe extending to Bloom Road.
